

Catherine, (Kitty) Schmidt-Löw-Beer, M.D., Ph.D, is a psychiatrist and a psychoanalyst Member of the International Psychoanalytic Association (IPA). She is a Training and Supervising analyst of the Vienna Psychoanalytic Society (IPA Component Society) and the Austrian Association for Group Psychotherapy. She works in private practice and for 25 years she was Associate Professor at the Department of Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy, Medical University of Vienna. She is member of the teaching staff of the Psychoanalytic Institute of Eastern Europe (PIEE), Member of the Infant Observation Group Vienna, Member of the IPA Liaison Committee of the Moscow Psychoanalytical Society, Senior Consultant of the Child guidance clinics in Vienna. For 15 years she was Member of the Faculty (Department of Psychology) of the Webster University's Vienna campus. Her research topic is: the effect of totalitarianism on the psyche.